lust

I only want to lie down here
I see red lights right in front of me
They aren't tongues of fire
It's my only desire

You better give up

You can scream, shrinking my mind
You can beat me, I don't feel the pain
You can hunt me down in fire
You can make me lose everything

Every touch to your skin is one step to perfect sin
Every beat of your heart brings me back to the start

You can scream, shrinking my mind
You can beat me, I don't feel the pain
You can hunt me down in fire
You can make me lose everything
